Thanks Linda, hi Anthony and congratulations.

We will make a start on the open source checks straight away.

Anthony what day would suit for a residential security review. Early next week is my preference, I would need to speak with an occupier of the house (not necessarily you) and be on site for about an hour and a half.

I can also use the time to catch up with key people such as Linda to get an overview of recent issues and pop in to meet you if you aren't going to be at your home.

Kind Regards Gavin

Thanks Linda, hi Anthony and congratulations.

We will make a start on the open source checks straight away.

Anthony what day would suit for a residential security review. Early next week is my preference, I would need to speak with an occupier of the house (not necessarily you) and be on site for about an hour and a half.

I can also use the time to catch up with key people such as Linda to get an overview of recent issues and pop in to meet you if you aren't going to be at your home.

Kind Regards Gavin

Thanks Anthony,

I'm sure you will have a clear run to the finish but good to have made the connection so that if you do have any security issues in the future then we can hit the ground running.

Kind Regards

Hi Gavin

We have received a request under the OIA from [REDACTED] to “provide a copy of all Thompson and Clark invoices tendered to Southern Response Earthquake Services Limited from 4 September 2010 to 25 September 2017”.

As you may recall, some of the invoices were previously released to the Labour Party in response to their request last year. We have applied the same reasoning to the proposed redactions, namely we propose to withhold all information revealing the breakdown of services provided to Southern Response and the cost of these component services, and these disbursements which are charged on a negotiated rate (as opposed to actual cost reimbursement, e.g. flights) which we consider to be information which is commercially sensitive to TCIL.

I attach the bundle of invoices which we intend to release, showing the proposed redactions.

I would appreciate your review and response by COB Wednesday, 18th October to allow us to finalise and provide the response within the statutory timeframe.

Thank you

Hi Anna,

I've just had a quick look at these and there are some inconsistencies as some services have been redacted and others not. You indicate that you intend to withhold all information revealing the breakdown of services, there are a number of examples where this has not occurred and we wouldn't want any of the description of our services or suite of services made public.

Examples include:

- Risk Management Package
- Risk Management Services
- Director/Projects/Collections
- Collections attend Christchurch

So I would prefer that all of our services are redacted.

I rely upon OIA 1982 Section 9 (2)(b)(i) and (ii) where official information can be withheld where it would disclose a trade secret and where it would likely unreasonably prejudice the commercial position of the person who supplied it.

I would also request that the subtotal amount, GST amounts and total amounts including remittance statements are withheld. The reason for this is that one could simply subtract the visible amounts such as disbursements and come up with the rate, especially in a situation where there is only one service listed in the description.

This request would be based upon the same section of the act as above.

I cant see why the release of this information in the public interest would outweigh our rights to maintain a commercial advantage.

If you require me to go through each invoice and list it by number and provide more detail of what I am outlining above please let me know but I hope that his gives you an appreciation of our situation.

Kind Regards Gavin

We have received a request under the OIA from [REDACTED] to “provide a copy of all Thompson and Clark invoices tendered to Southern Response Earthquake Services Limited from 4 September 2010 to 25 September 2017”.

As you may recall, some of the invoices were previously released to the Labour Party in response to their request last year. We have applied the same reasoning to the proposed redactions, namely we propose to withhold all information revealing the breakdown of services provided to Southern Response and the cost of these component services, and these disbursements which are charged on a negotiated rate (as opposed to actual cost reimbursement, e.g. flights) which we consider to be information which is commercially sensitive to TCIL.

I attach the bundle of invoices which we intend to release, showing the proposed redactions.

I would appreciate your review and response by COB Wednesday, 18th October to allow us to finalise and provide the response within the statutory timeframe.

Thank you

Hi Gavin

Thank you for your reply.

The approach we have taken with respect to the services provided was that at a high level general descriptions such as “Risk Management Package” (where the detail of what the package comprises is not provided), commercial sensitivity of the information is not apparent - the description is not dissimilar to how those services are advertised on TCIL’s public website. Likewise, it would be difficult to argue that descriptions such as “attendances” or “collections” in themselves are commercially sensitive when there is no detail of what they relate to.

In terms of the amounts, we have withheld the totals and GST where there is only one type of service on the invoice and individual rate could be calculated from the invoice total. Where there are a number of services and disbursements which make such calculation not possible, we did not consider that withholding grounds applied to the invoice totals.

However, we respect TCIL’s position regarding the commercial sensitivity of this information and your request to withhold all service descriptions and all invoice totals. I would appreciate if you could please put your concerns into a formal letter addressed to Casey Hurren, GM – Legal & Strategy for our record in the event of a complaint to the Ombudsman.

At the same time, I need to advise you that yesterday we have received a further OIA request from [REDACTED] regarding the March 2014 Threat Assessment is which he is asking for “a copy of all emails and documents between Southern Response, TCIL and any other party in relation to the “Threat Assessment” sent to Southern Response on 16 June 2014, including but not limited to:

Invoices

Instructions

Engagement

Hi Anna,

I've just had a quick look at these and there are some inconsistencies as some services have been redacted and others not. You indicate that you intend to withhold all information revealing the breakdown of services, there are a number of examples where this has not occurred and we wouldn't want any of the description of our services or suite of services made public.

Examples include:

- Risk Management Package
- Risk Management Services
- Director/Projects/Collections
- Collections attend Christchurch

So I would prefer that all of our services are redacted.

I rely upon OIA 1982 Section 9 (2)(b)(i) and (ii) where official information can be withheld where it would disclose a trade secret and where it would likely unreasonably prejudice the commercial position of the person who supplied it.

I would also request that the subtotal amount, GST amounts and total amounts including remittance statements are withheld. The reason for this is that one could simply subtract the visible amounts such as disbursements and come up with the rate, especially in a situation where there is only one service listed in the description.

This request would be based upon the same section of the act as above.

I cant see why the release of this information in the public interest would outweigh our rights to maintain a commercial advantage.

If you require me to go through each invoice and list it by number and provide more detail of what I am outlining above please let me know but I hope that his gives you an appreciation of our situation.

Kind Regards Gavin

Hi Gavin

Further to your discussions with Casey earlier this month, you will be aware that following [REDACTED] complaint to the Ombudsman in relation to the March 2014 Threat Assessment, in consideration of the commercial sensitivity of the information in the report from TCIL's perspective, we have offered him an opportunity to have "read only" access to that report while supervised.

In responding to the offer, [REDACTED] requested that we also consider giving him a "read only" access to the unredacted version of your July 2015 report, a copy of which has been provided to him previously with redactions.

We have reviewed the report, and consider that given that much of the information in the report is out of date, we would be agreeable to his request subject to consultation with you and subject to:

- Continuing to redact those paragraphs which were reviewed by the Privacy Commissioner and Southern Response's right to withhold them upheld (these are blacked out in the attachment)
- A strict condition that no copies, photos, or notes are to be taken (the reading will be under supervision)

The sections of the report not previously seen by [REDACTED] which he would now be able to read are highlighted. Redactions would be applied to the names and other personal information as appropriate.

Please contact Casey if you have concerns with this approach, or let me know if you are agreeable to it.

We have now reviewed the information which is in scope of this request (not a lot), and propose to release to him the attached documents, subject to redactions as marked, plus one invoice which has already been released, subject to the same redactions as previously applied (not attached as you have already seen it).

On legal advice, we propose to release your proposal to SR from January 2014, subject to redactions of information which we consider is commercially sensitive to TCIL and/or other organisations. The proposed redactions are marked in red.

As on previous occasions, if you have significant concerns regarding the potential release of the information, I would be grateful if you could please set those out in a letter to us as we may require this to support our position in the event of a complaint to the Ombudsman.

The decision on this request is due on Tuesday 14th November. Please let me know if you are not able to review and respond by Monday lunchtime.

Hi Gavin

Hope you are well. As signalled to you in October, we are responding to a further OIA request from ██████████ regarding the March 2014 Threat Assessment is which he is asking for “a copy of all emails and documents between Southern Response, TCIL and any other party in relation to the “Threat Assessment” sent to Southern Response on 16 June 2014, including but not limited to:

Invoices

Instructions

Engagement

Brief

Email Conversations and Correspondence”

We have now reviewed the information which is in scope of this request (not a lot), and propose to release to him the attached documents, subject to redactions as marked, plus one invoice which has already been released, subject to the same redactions as previously applied (not attached as you have already seen it).

On legal advice, we propose to release your proposal to SR from January 2014, subject to redactions of information which we consider is commercially sensitive to TCIL and/or other organisations. The proposed redactions are marked in red.

As on previous occasions, if you have significant concerns regarding the potential release of the information, I would be grateful if you could please set those out in a letter to us as we may require this to support our position in the event of a complaint to the Ombudsman.

The decision on this request is due on Tuesday 14th November. Please let me know if you are not able to review and respond by Monday lunchtime.

Thank you and kind regards

Anna

Hi Anna,

I've just had a quick look at these and there are some inconsistencies as some services have been redacted and others not. You indicate that you intend to withhold all information revealing the breakdown of services, there are a number of examples where this has not occurred and we wouldn't want any of the description of our services or suite of services made public.

Examples include:

- Risk Management Package
- Risk Management Services
- Director/Projects/Collections
- Collections attend Christchurch

So I would prefer that all of our services are redacted.

I rely upon OIA 1982 Section 9 (2)(b)(i) and (ii) where official information can be withheld where it would disclose a trade secret and where it would likely unreasonably prejudice the commercial position of the person who supplied it.

I would also request that the subtotal amount, GST amounts and total amounts including remittance statements are withheld. The reason for this is that one could simply subtract the visible amounts such as disbursements and come up with the rate, especially in a situation where there is only one service listed in the description.

This request would be based upon the same section of the act as above.

I cant see why the release of this information in the public interest would outweigh our rights to maintain a commercial advantage.

If you require me to go through each invoice and list it by number and provide more detail of what I am outlining above please let me know but I hope that his gives you an appreciation of our situation.

Kind Regards Gavin

Hi Gavin

We have received a request under the OIA from [REDACTED] to “provide a copy of all Thompson and Clark invoices tendered to Southern Response Earthquake Services Limited from 4 September 2010 to 25 September 2017”.

As you may recall, some of the invoices were previously released to the Labour Party in response to their request last year. We have applied the same reasoning to the proposed redactions, namely we propose to withhold all information revealing the breakdown of services provided to Southern Response and the cost of these component services, and these disbursements which are charged on a negotiated rate (as opposed to actual cost reimbursement, e.g. flights) which we consider to be information which is commercially sensitive to TCIL.

I attach the bundle of invoices which we intend to release, showing the proposed redactions.

I would appreciate your review and response by COB Wednesday, 18th October to allow us to finalise and provide the response within the statutory timeframe.

Hi Anna,

I have reviewed the content of the intended release and I do have some concerns about this.

If I am clear that the request relates to correspondence around the threat assessment then there is information here that is out of that scope and doesn't appear to have been redacted namely references to:

- Site review
- Directors review and home visits
- Entire email threads on security reviews.
- Response plans for directors
- Risk tool
- Conference call

None of these subject matters above have anything to do with the threat assessment which is a standalone piece of work and in my opinion are not relevant to the specific request.

I ask that the emails and the references to the above in the proposal be withheld.

If you require me to mark-up the specific references and documents please let me know as I am happy to do this.

Thank you, Gavin.

Our original approach (and one that we would generally follow with OIA requests) was to release any information “caught up” in the request, even if not specifically related to it, unless there were withholding grounds under the OIA.

However, in light of your comments below, and incorporating your feedback, we agree that in this case it is appropriate to take a more literal approach to the request and we have applied additional redactions to only release what is strictly in scope of the request, which is not a lot.

Please let me know if you need to see the revised redactions before they go out.

Thanks Anna if you need more supporting legislation we would also rely upon Section 9 (2) (ba) around protecting information which is subject to an obligation of confidence. There is supporting case law Wyatt Co (NZ) Ltd v Queenstown Lakes District Court (1991).

Basically we wouldn't provide this type of sensitive information if there was a risk that it would be released under the OIA and that it would impede our ability and your security measures if we weren't able to provide this in confidence.
